Cocoa beans

Chocolate comes from a bean which grows inside a pod or a large fruit. It is found on a cacao tree. The word "cacao" comes from two Maya Indian words meaning "bitter juice." The cacao tree grows up to 25 feet and is found in Africa, Nigeria and Brazil. The leading amount of Cacao beans are in Africa on the Ivory coast, it's annual production of the Cacao bean is 1,146,4000,000 pounds! When a spelling mistake was made by English importers, the Cacao bean became known as Cocoa beans.

the Mongoose

The mongoose is a small carnivore living in Asia, Africa and Madagascar. There are 48 species, all similar in shape, with tapering heads, long tails and short legs. They prey on rats, and other rodents. But they're known for eating snakes and eggs. The mongoose is not allowed to be brought into the U.S. because it might eliminate many native animals.

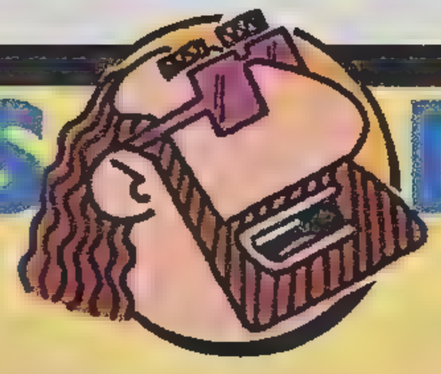
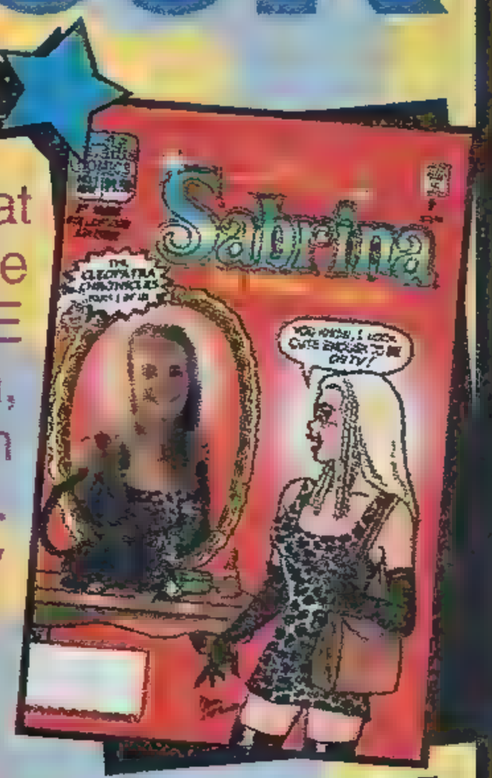
EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

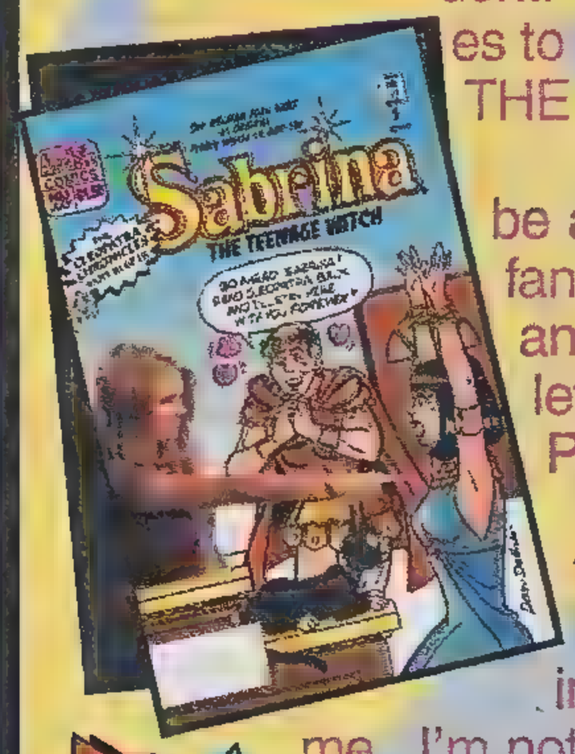


Dear Archie Readers,

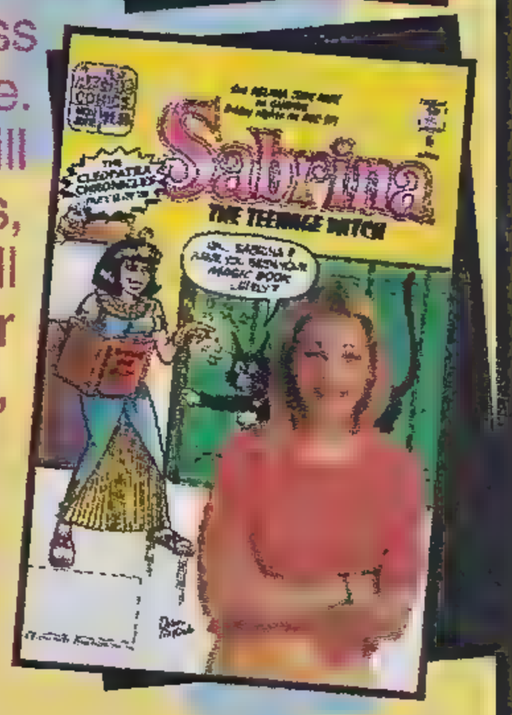
If you read this column last month, you might recall my saying that here at Archie Comics we listen to our readers. Well, we certainly listened to all of the responses we received to the special number one issue of SABRINA THE TEENAGE WITCH. Your wish was our command. Beginning next month, everybody's favorite teenage witch returns in an all-new ongoing series. Each cover will feature a photo of Melissa Joan Hart, star of the Sabrina ABC-TV show.

The first issue of this new series opens with Sabrina studying for a history test. To make her studying a little more interesting, she conjures Cleopatra, the Queen of Egypt. While she's here, Cleopatra is passed off as an exchange student. Guess what!...Cleo just loves the 20th century and refuses to go back. This "spells" big problems for Sabrina. Don't miss THE CLEOPATRA CHRONICLES in issues one, two and three.





Some of the other features in the new Sabrina series will be a behind the scenes look at the TV show and the players, fan art pages and a "Dear Sabrina" column where Sabrina will answer your letters in her own magical style. Write your letters to Archie Comic Publications, Inc., Dear Sabrina, P.O. Box 419, Mamaroneck, NY 10543-0419.



Now I know I asked for e-mail a few months ago. I felt I was e-mail deprived. Well, that situation has certainly changed. In fact, I'm having a tough time keeping up with it. If you sent e-mail to me, please bear with me. I'm not ignoring you and will try to answer all of it.

Send your letters to: Victor Gorelick, Editor

ARCHIE COMIC PUBLICATIONS, INC., P.O. Box 419, Mamaroneck, NY 10543-0419, E-MAIL: 72764.03474@COMPUSERVE.COM
